

Sid Thomson

Board Member since 2022

Sid retired from FedEx Corp after 29-years of service. His volunteering activities at YMCA Camp DuNord, Listening Point Foundation, and Northwoods Partners keep him busy.

Being involved with Northwoods Partners has been very rewarding for Sid. He has been active in NP programs and with volunteering activities. Through Northwoods Partners, Sid has been able to remain active, be involved in his community, and has made many new friends along the way.

Sid and his wife, Diane, retired to Ely in 2015. They have two grown children in the Twin Cities; Robin, a PhD, works in the entomology department at the University of Minnesota and Kate is a PhD library science candidate and employed at Concordia College.

In his free time, Sid enjoys snowshoeing in the winter and golfing all summer long. His year-round passion is woodworking and he is proud to say that he has perfected the art of kindling making. Diane keeps him busy with crafting looms for her knitting and weaving. Sid's newest passion is model railroading.
